

Missed the boat?

Shipment stuck?

Customs delays?

Cargo not flying?

If you're a manufacturer, importer or distributor, you know that, when it comes to logistics, a million things can go wrong. And they usually do. All at once.

Now you can do something about it.

ADI is the just-in-time logistics company with expertise in distribution, freight and trucking services throughout the continental US – for the next time you need a miracle.

About us:

ADI Logistics (ADI) was established in 1994 to provide the most intelligent and efficient distribution, freight and trucking services network in the continental US. Today the company serves hundreds of manufacturers, importers and distributors, shipping to the largest retailers in the country.

With strong roots in the apparel/fashion industry – known for its exacting standards and unforgiving delivery requirements – ADI now addresses a wide range of markets, from office and medical supplies to electronics and sporting goods. At ADI, technology is used to enable end-to-end visibility and control, but also to help “keep it simple”.

With an emphasis on customer care, ADI service reps are all management level. They, along with an individually tested and trained staff, convey a can-do attitude, best expressed by the company slogan, “Expect a Miracle”.
